Is the Australian government's lack of ambitious action on climate change breaching human rights?

Generation Justice thinks so.

But what can a group of nine young people do about it? A lot - and making a formal human rights complaint to the UN Special Rapporteur on Climate Change is just the start.

Maya Farmer, a Zonta Young Women in Leadership awardee, is one of the nine young people making waves.

Join Maya and her friends for this not-to-be-missed conversation.
