ZOOM MEETING AGENDA

Burning Issues

The ‘fire’ theme for this meeting was inspired by a young man called Oscar reading a poem about fires and nature that he wrote for school.

Where would we be without fire? We use it for cooking, heating and for those romantic candlelight evenings. However, at this time of year, in Australia, we are on alert for fires that can get out of control in an instant.

For this meeting we will look at the fire danger ratings and share our experiences about how to go about making our bushfire plans. What do you have in your ‘go bag’?

This meeting will be the first for 2023, so we will allow some time to discuss what other ‘burning issues’ we would like to focus on in the year ahead.

We will also provide updates on what has been happening internationally and locally - there is just so much for us to talk about on Saturday!

Please let me know if you can attend by clicking here or if you will be an apology.

Keep breathing, keep smiling and have fun!

Kind regards

Carole
