DISTRICT 23 UPDATE
Change of date for October meeting

Everlasting Action

This short update is to let you know that the date of the next meeting has been changed to Sunday 22 October.

We will be privileged to have Amy Steel as our guest speaker in October. Amy is a senior manager working on Climate Risk and Decarbonisation for the Oceania Region. She is also interested in finding out more about how we can use First Nations knowledge to help climate change issues and is building a house in a ecovillage.

You may remember that Amy featured in a Climate Council video on sport and climate that we shared last year. She is a former professional Australian netballer whose career was cut short when she suffered heat stroke during a competition - but she now is going for gold with climate action. Amy is inspirational!

A couple of weeks ago, I spent some time in NSW and visited the National Seed Bank at the Australian Botanic Garden Mount Annan, near Campbelltown and came across this amazing display of everlasting daisies. These daisies are hardy and resilient - and manage to look happy in tough times. We can learn a lot from them as we go through the ups and downs of learning to live with a changing climate.

Please register below for the meeting today - it is going to be extraordinary.

Keep breathing, keep smiling and have fun!

Kind regards

Carole
